Celebration of the 25th anniversary of Search for Common Ground

Monday, January 15th, 2007 -- Hôtel Farah Rabat

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the international NGO “Search for Common Ground”, and its 5th anniversary in Morocco, Search for Common Ground-Morocco organizes, in presence of Mr John Marks, the President and Founder, a ceremony to celebrate,

"25 years of conflict transformation in the world, 5 years in Morocco"

During this ceremony, two major events will take place:

- The signature of a new Memorandum of Understanding with the Ministry of Justice, on the institutionalization of Mediation in Morocco;
- The awarding of certificates to the young mediators of “Réseau Maillage” (young mediators from disadvantaged neighborhood)

The ceremony will take place in the presence of Mr Mohammed Bouzoubaa, Minister of Justice, and Sir. Charles Gray, Ambassador of Great-Britain in Morocco; as well as personalities representing the Moroccan Government, Civil Society, and different embassies.

The reception will take place Monday, January 15th, 2007 at Hotel Farah in Rabat.
