BIRTH

This world is a miracle. Among those, creation or birth itself is an amazing miracle.

Birth is unveiled joy, with a transcendental plan to it. A feeling of completeness. A launchpad of infinite dreams.

Birth is a miracle. It is just not satisfaction but a feeling of completeness and a vision of a happy future.
For your sake, we’ll provide her with 100 days in the office. After that, we will have to see.

Mrs. Asha Singh will be taking her oath as Nepal’s Prime Minister.

For the first time in Nepal, the public will be getting a woman Prime Minister. In a country where top leadership has been in the hands of men.

Mrs. Singh has created ripples in the political scenario. We take you to the dias for the live telecast.
It seems like the image contains multiple languages and a mix of text and images, making it difficult to provide a coherent textual representation. However, here is a general transcription of the visible text:

"I, Ayesha Singh..."

"I solemnly declare to the country and the people, do faithfully discharge the duties of the Office of the Prime Minister remaining within the law..."

"in the rights of the people and the public..."
... without favor, affection or ill will. I will work with dedication.

...irrespective of whether I hold or cease to hold the office, except as may be required in the observance of law...

These sweets are made in my hometown, each bite reminds me of my childhood.

It's been in one family for three generations. Same quality, same taste.

Whenever I go to my village and enter their shop, they first greet me with sweets and then the difficult question, "When will you give us the constitution?"
You can now enter the shop guilt free, Mr. President.

Perhaps, not everyone.

And what about the expansion of your cabinet?

The main ministries are done. Others need to be finalized.
It's all about teamwork, I know you will choose your team wisely.

Thank you, Mr. President. Any other advice?

He can be the key to your success.

This is the third time in four years. Same ceremony. Same sweets.

Prepare the budget soon for fourth time as well, Mr. Secretary.

I feel these paintings will help you too.

This is a very beautiful and inspiring gift. Thank you.

Bishwas Dai is here!

Bishwas Dai is here!
Here are some chocolates. I will give it to everyone. All of you, come this way.

They deserve opportunities equal to the city kids.

You were that kid’s age when you first came here.

Distribute these copies and pencils to everyone.

When you return, can you send some text books? I wonder why the Government fails to provide them on time.

I will try. I’m also planning to set up a small library here. I will definitely try!
I have faith that we can make our one year tenure... really count with team work...

Please, during meetings, if you could...

Switch off your phones. Thank you.

We are here not just to run the government's engine; when needed, let's have the guts to upgrade them.
Deliver on promises. Transparency is key.

Of course, Madam Prime Minister.

Madam Prime Minister, I'm very happy to be working with you. Namaste.

I will take your leave now.

Sir, you could've stayed at home.
We could have managed here.

I'll get worse if I take rest.

Sir, what do you think? Is Akhilesh up to the mark to be the Press Advisor?

He has good contacts, and is loyal to the party.

He's one of us. I'll manage recruitment, Asha, you don't have to worry.

And Mr. Shrestha? Will he fit in as the Finance Advisor?
You focus on learning the ropes.

Let's move on. Any progress on Home Ministry?

Thapa's using all his tactics to get Home and Law ministries.

We can't afford more time to deal with this. Shall I speak with him?

What do you think? You will be able to solve a problem that my father couldn't?
...perhaps we should let go of the home ministry. The time spent bargaining could be better spent on governing.

Back down is not the solution, Mr. Wagle. We cannot let go of significant portfolios like Law and Home.

We have a lot to do this year.

Public needs to experience change. That is key.

We have to show we can work with everyone.

Yes. Letting go doesn’t make us less powerful. After all, we have the Prime Minister. We have to strike a balance in ministry distribution.
Home for Thapa’s party. Foreign Affairs and Law to Malla.

We have the decision power in any case.

Singh Durbar-Prime Minister’s Office

Federal Daily mailed these questions. I’ve prepared your responses.

Remove this line about Aditya’s accident and the paragraph about my father’s disappearance.

Ma’am, this will catch the readers attention.

My family’s privacy should be respected.
Let's focus on the future, why run after the past?

Let me review the email before you send it? Also, is the TU speech ready?

It will be ready shortly.

I know a person. He will be willing to help, but they...

...and, somehow seems like I have something to return. He has been so helpful, I feel I...

...expect publicity in return. I'm sure you can manage that?

This is all just business. In return, they all want something.

Good morning, son! Come and get some breakfast.

I want good people, not ‘our’ people. Akhilesh doesn’t have any sensibility nor professionalism.

Don’t make any decision in hast. We need him.

I can’t trust him. I’ve compiled my own advisors’ list.
None of them voted for us. You know that.

There’s no mention of a Press Advisor in your list.

Madam Prime Minister, what about Bishwas Bistwarkarma? He works for New Nepal TV, writes for international press as well.

He’s a good analyst. And he’s the one interviewing you tonight.
He’s still raw, and all he ever does is criticize the government. We’ll find someone.

Mr. Prime Minister, I believe improving infrastructures should be the government’s priority. Before that, the government must establish rule of law and nation-wide security.

If you fail to deliver the sense of security to the people and rule as per the law, then your government will lack relevance.

Can you do a background check on Bishwas for me?

Yes, Ma’am!
I will ensure you can do your job without interference. No one is above the rule of law. Do your work assuredly. I’m with you.

Our commitment to zero tolerance towards impunity is mutual. Thank you, Madam Prime Minister. It’ll now be easier for me to work.
That's Okay, Bishwas. Can you sit for a while? I have a question for you. Do you want to join my team as Press Advisor?

Are you serious? I think I am fine here, Madam Prime Minister. I can work freely here. Working with you will have limitations.

It's nothing like that, Bishwas. I believe in your capability. You will have access to scrutinize us better from the inside. What do you say?

Greetings! Today we have Nepal's new Prime Minister, Madam Asha Singh. Welcome to our special show Madam Prime Minister.

Welcome to the studio. We will start in about five minutes.

To hold elections within the period of one year. So, it is not that this government will be able to fulfill all wishes and aspirations. It is also not possible to do that within a year.

तथ्यमा यो सरकारले त्यसको गरी एउटा लिंसीयो कार्यरत्नलाई बनेको तक्षाल। हामीले तय्याको छोडको जन्य। जलसौर, पर्यटन, विज्ञान, भूमि सरकारको द्वारा।

However, this government will prepare a strong foundation for the future of the country. We have unlimited resources. Hydropower, tourism, herbs, agriculture. We have everything here.
Nations who started their development from zero are able to reach the top.

At the very least, we don’t have to start from zero. People are hopeful. This very hope will direct us to a prosperous Nepal.

As you’ve said, your government’s mandate is to hold elections within one year. You also cannot forget that the government you are heading is a coalition. We also don’t need to explain to the people about the instability of coalition governments.

How, then, can you guarantee that your government can survive one year?
I think the formation of this government in itself is the answer to your question. How long will we remain in mistrust? Everyone needs to be vigilant and cautious.

Looks like she’ll be able to do something.

Madam Prime Minister, I have a small request. I support an orphanage...

I just came to say that I loved your interview. Also I had a successful meeting with Mr. Thapa and Mr. Malla.
They have agreed to Home, External Affairs and Law Ministries. Now I’ll appoint a new Finance and Press Advisor for you.

Sir, I’ve appointed Bishwas as my new Press Advisor. I’m meeting Mr. Lama tomorrow for the post of Finance Advisor.

Sir, have faith in me.

This is your team, Asha. You have the right to choose your team members.

You must have read the story of Icarus. He was gifted a pair of wings made of wax and feathers. One day Icarus soared into the sky and unknowingly went too close to the sun.
The sun's heat melted the wax. Icarus kept flapping his wings, but soon realized that he had no feathers left.

He was only flapping his bare arms. So, Icarus had a bad fall and died.

You think Asha is over ambitious?

Yes. And it's you who gave her those wings. She will eventually fall and take us down with her.

Son, we will fall only when we stop supporting each other.
Kaliu, you didn’t even consult with me once?

It was a spontaneous decision, I didn’t get a chance.

And what about our talk show?

We started this show to make our leaders accountable.

I’ll do that by being among them, you do it from here.

It’ll be more impactful, don’t you think?

Are you sure you want to work for a politician?

SINGHA DURBAR – PHOTO NOVELLA

The 13 Photo Novellas has been produced to strengthen the messages of good governance and collaborative leadership as depicted in Singha Durbar TV Series. This guideline will further direct the use of Photo Novellas and the message it carries. Ask questions and get talking about the issues dealt in the Photo Novella.

PARTICIPANTS:
Students, youth leaders, upcoming political leaders, political leaders, and general public.

DISCUSSION GUIDELINES:
SFCG Nepal believes in meaningful participation of target audiences. Audience views/participation should not be influenced, manipulated, or planted. The facilitator need to be mindful of the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Do</th>
<th>Don’t</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Listen to them. Participants will want to share their stories with you.</td>
<td>Give information but instead allow people to discuss the information they require.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Protect privacy. If you feel someone is about to speak inappropriately about someone else, you may need to interrupt with a reminder. This is called protective interruption.</td>
<td>Take sides. Keep personal opinions at bay. Instead, take interest in what the participants are saying.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Get participants to take down notes of issues they feel need to be discussed or highlighted.</td>
<td>Portray yourself as an authority figure.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Give information that is not verified or is not supported by evidence.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

QUICK NOTES:

- Up to 10 participants with round table setting.
- 30 minutes of Singha Durbar TV series and 30 minutes for discussions.
- One facilitator.
- Take photos and also seek for permission from the participants.
- It is important to set-up the projector, laptop, and episode before the participants arrive to save time.
- Share your experience and photos with us at sfcgnepal@sfcg.org.

EPISODE 2: TEAMWORK, VALUE OF MERITOCRACY, RESOLVING INTERPERSONAL CONFLICT AND INCLUSION.

STORY:
Prime Minister Asha Singh puts together the team that will help her bring about big changes in the country. While the party chairman, Ramananda Jha wants to appoint old trusted people, Asha wants new voices. She recruits BishwasBiswokarma(an orphan dalit from mid-western region of Nepal), a journalist and talk show host, as her press advisor.SumnimaBajracharya joins the team as Asha's personal assistant. The Chief Secretary TikaramPoudel, however, is skeptical about whether Asha can do the job. Asha, her husband Ramesh Singh and their 12-year-old son Aditya, prepare to move to the PM's residence. Asha is reminded of why she is really doing this job, when she starts receiving letters from the public that bring forward challenges faced by an ordinary Nepal.

QUESTIONS:
1. What are the attributes of a perfect leader?
2. How does Prime Minister Asha portray a perfect leader?
3. What is the importance of dialogue and how does it resolve issues?
4. Why do you think the Chief Secretary didn’t think she would be able to serve as the Prime Minister of the country?
5. If you were the Prime Minister of the country, would you have asked for letters from the citizens? Why?
